

An Easter Carol

A new lyric to the same tune (from MUSIC FOR THE PASSION commissioned for the performance in Chelmsford Cathedral in 2012)

Patrick Appleford

Joyfully

1. It was on East-er day and all in the morn-ing,
2. Eas - ter joy fills our hearts; we sing all - e - lu - a,
3. From the bond-age of sin, from fear you have freed us;

Wo - men dis - cov - ered the emp - ty tomb, And was not this a joy - ful thing, For the Je - sus is ri - sen, our heav'n ly king, And is not this a joy - ful thing, All - e
Trust - ing in you and your end - less love, We share the joy of life with you, All - e

Lord had been raised from the dead; Je - sus, lu - ia let all the world sing, Je - sus, lu - ias our Sa - viour acc - laim; Je - sus,

Je - sus, with us ev - er - more as you said.
Je - sus, our lo - ving and hea - ven - ly King.
Je - sus, sweet Je - sus we call you by name.
